GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

For more than fifteen years

we've controlled—absolutely controlled—the Wheeling sales of several of New York City's best Cloak, Suit and Fur makers, besides having on sale the choicest product of many other first-class manufacturers.

Our Suits and Jackets are all man-tailored, and a faultless fit is guaranteed.

It will pay to investigate this statement—we can substantiate it in more ways than one.

Geo. M. Snook & Co.,

Sellers of High Class Ready-to-Wear Goods at LESS Prices.

The New Suits

we show are made in the main of Camel's Hair and Pebbled Cheviots, Venetians and Zebelines, materials permitting of wondrously rich and lustrous color-effects, such as would seem impossible of attainment in quiet colors like Brown, Grey and Blue.

Some Leading Suit Features:

- Nineteen-inch long double-breasted jackets.
- Half-tight fitting double-breasted jackets—single darts, instead of double.
- Flat outside welt seams with neat marginal stitching.
- Seven and nine gore inverted pleat skirts—stylish flare at the bottom.
- Black Peau de Soie facings forming a portion of revers on both black and colored jackets.
- Taffeta Linings in the finer suits.
- Hunter's Green Blouse Jacket Suits with plain gilt buttons and black inset velvet collars.

Too much space required to tell about the many new Fall Jackets, Skirts and Furs. Main street window shows a few choice styles—many more within to interest you.

Still Alarm.

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning the Niagara received a still alarm calling them to 2536 Main street, to the house occupied by the Roberts family. A defective flue set fire to the roof, but the quick response of the Niagara fire ladders prevented any serious consequences. The blaze was squelched before any material damage was done.

Last Night's Fire.

Shortly after 11 o'clock last evening still alarms were sent into both the Niagara and the Hook and Ladder companies, summoning them to Main street, below Twenty-third, where a fire originated from spontaneous combustion in some clothing in the garret of the boarding house conducted by Mrs. Dorsey. These two companies responded promptly and had the fire out before the flames ignited the house. Some clothing and bedding was consumed, but the loss was nominal.

A Church Benefit.

At Odd Fellows' hall, Chapline and Twelfth streets, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, a concert will be given for the benefit of the Zane street M. E. church. The programme is as follows:

Pianoforte Trio.....The Misses Stahl Song.....Rev. C. H. H. Molony Recitation.....Miss Winters Duet.....Mrs. Morris and Miss Metzner Pianoforte Solo.....Miss S. Rump Refreshments.

The Criminal Court.

Yesterday, in the criminal court, Judge Huges, in the case of the state vs. Harding and Francis, charged with the theft of goods from the store of F. M. Work & Co., on the South Side, there was a verdict of guilty. The inevitable new trial motion was made. It was brought out in the evidence that one had served six years in the state reform school, and the other four and one-half years.

The case of the state vs. William Bilneo and George Day, charged with the theft of a pocketbook will be tried to-day.

THE WORK OF CONSTRUCTION ON P. C. & W.

Road is to Start on the Third Section in Marshall County Early Next Week.

300 MEN WILL BE EMPLOYED

On This Work by the Contractors, C. A. Sims & Co.—Soundings Completed for Harbor.

It is authoritatively announced by a gentleman connected with the Pittsburgh, Connellsville & Wheeling railroad project, that the work of construction on the third section of the line, in Marshall county, will be started early next week by the firm that recently secured the contract, Charles A. Sims & Co., of Philadelphia. This section is along Big Wheeling creek, and centers near Shepperd's Mills at a place that will be named Moundsville Junction. Here the road will run in three directions, eastward to Pennsylvania, northward to Wheeling and southward to Moundsville. The Sims contract covers parts of all three divisions. At Shepperd's Mills a tunnel is to be constructed, and on this work and on grading Sims & Co. will start next week. It is stated that the firm will employ between 300 and 400 men on this work, which will be prosecuted with vigor until winter interferes. Sims & Co.'s wagons and grading equipment are expected to arrive in a few days. The firm was to have begun this work earlier in the fall, but was delayed owing to failure to complete another contract on time.

The Pittsburgh, Connellsville & Wheeling's corps of engineers, which has been engaged in making soundings in the Ohio river at the lower end of Moundsville, has completed its work and made its report to the company. They have located what they claim to be the best harbor in the entire Ohio river—a pool that showed an average depth of fifteen feet for a distance of 1,500 feet. Fifty feet from the shore the depth was ten feet; further out seventeen feet was found. Here the company will establish its coal tipple, where coal brought in from the railroad will be transhipped by water to the lower river markets.

It is stated that the Pittsburgh, Connellsville & Wheeling is financed to the extent of $5,000,000 by the New York banking firm of Hubbard, Hatch & Co. Mr. Hubbard, of this firm, recently went over the route of the proposed road, and is reported an enthusiastic believer in its future. Some of the road's bonds, it is said, will be offered for sale in Wheeling, but the projectors say they are not especially anxious to place them here.

The Intelligencer asked the gentleman from whom it got the foregoing information whether the rumors that the Pennsylvania railroad was back of the Pittsburgh, Connellsville & Wheeling were correct, and he replied very emphatically:

"The Pennsylvania is no more connected with the P. C. & W. than you are."

Continuing, the gentleman gave certain reasons in support of his assertion that seem cogent enough, but could not be published at this time. The P. C. & W., he added, is independent of all other roads, and will be so operated. Entrance into Wheeling will be over the Terminal, and it is stated that the company's officials have looked into the charter and grants to the Terminal company, and find that the Terminal shall at all times be open to use by all railroads, and that switching charges shall in no event exceed $2 per car.

Bellaire Elks to the Front.

The Bellaire lodge of Elks held a meeting last night and decided to give an entertainment in the near future, the proceeds to go to the relief of the Galveston flood sufferers. The management of the Columbia theatre has donated the use of the building and Bellaire people are expected to respond liberally in a worthy cause and the capacity of the theatre will likely be taxed to its utmost on the evening of the concert. All citizens of Bellaire are asked to co-operate in the work of making the affair the success it deserves to be.

A New Ice Machine.

The Schmulbach Brewing Company closed a contract yesterday, with the Featherstone Company, of Chicago, for one 125-ton consolidated ice machine to be delivered immediately, which, when set in operation, will give the plant a total capacity of 225 tons daily.

The Giffin Portraits.

Photographer J. E. Giffin has just issued a neat booklet, "Hints Concerning the Making of a Picture," in which this eminent artist's methods are described in an interesting manner. "Getting your picture taken," is too often entered upon with carelessness—Mr. Giffin, in his booklet, tells just how you should enter upon such an experience in order to secure the best results. Copies may be obtained upon application to Mr. Giffin.

West Alexander Fair, Sept. 25, 26, 27, 1900.

Be sure to attend the greatest stock show of the year, and do not fail to visit the hall, which will be filled to overflowing with many fancy exhibits, and numerous farm products.

Meister's renowned band will furnish excellent music. Good horse-racing, Ladies' riding and driving contests, and a bicycle race will be amusing features. A balloon ascension will be an attraction each day. A daring aeronaut will leap from the dizzy height of 3,000 feet, with a hoopless parachute.

Come everybody and spend a day of pleasure at the best farmers' and stock growers' fair.
